2. The bulk of the meeting was spent discussing the proper responsibilities, functioning, and membership of the Steering Group (see attached memorandum of understanding).

3. The group was also briefed by [redacted] on a major project he has commission on the economy of the USSR. Mr. Saunders informed the group that INR has also launched a study on the Soviet economy which, because OER is largely unable to contribute, will be performed primarily by non-governmental individuals and institutions working on contract. The group agreed that [redacted] will convene a meeting of project managers to determine the degree of overlap involved and to identify possible areas of co-operation.
